1865—1872

If the Republicans who are at present in league with the copportends do not think it importance, we will remind our readers that seven years ago this work, occurred an event which will for ever attack prominent in history. On the 6th day from the 1865 the city of New York, and the whole land, was illectrified by the publication of the following telegram.

MAR DEPARTMENT WILLEYMOROUS. WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, April 9-9 o'clock a m }

To Major General Dix, New York

This Dequetment has received the official report of the surrender, this day, of General Lee and his army to Lieutenant-Janeral Grant, on the terms proposed by Jeneral Grant Details will be given as poedily as possible EDWIN M. BLANTON, Sic'y of War EDWIN M. STANTON, Sofy or War Inst drapside sent a half hour later to the victorious General by Mr. Stanton, these words cour: "The thacks of this Dipertment and of the Government and of the United Sates—their reverence and honor have been deserved—will be zendered to you and the brave and gallant choors and solders of your army for all time." Nor did Mr. Stanton say more it is the truth. Yet, even years later, was find a busy and obtrustive crowd of malcontents, disappointed egotists and audienous Presidenty seekers, reacting to every trick and subtle practice to blacken the great same of the victor of that day whole seeled the perpetuity of the Republic, and established it firm in its place as one of the greatest Powers of the world. But the people are noted forgetful as the scheming politicisms immediately entering the soldier who crowned their cause with victory, and who not even turning aside to enter in trimph the city he had captured, teethwith proceeded to reap the feutts of his victory, and lend his aid in relieving the country of the heavy burden in the domestic relative culture from the contrary of the heavy burden in the domestic relative culture.
